Superintendent's Highlights

In partnership with Idaho State University the district continued to pursue technology standards set by the State and District. A focus was placed on certification of teaching assessment to determine future needs. Course refinement and the district's progress towards goal 2000 standards. Also, the integration of technology into science instruction and classroom activities. The district's technology program will be highlighted by the U. S. Department of Education in the near future. Again, the district enhanced by completely various building improvement projects which was highlighted with the addition of a new media center at the Stoddard Elementary School. Several teachers and program directors indicated that all of their efforts have been strongly supported by the district's central administration.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

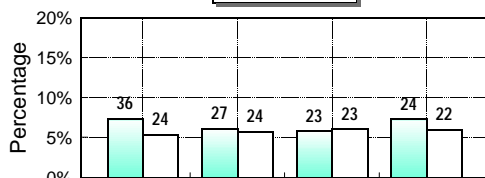

1998-99 Goals	Progress
A continued focus on technology development and implementation in the schools.	The district focused on meeting state technology standards and technology certification for teachers through inservice and tutorial efforts.
Focus on improving K-3 reading skills.	The district's reading committee worked on and completed a K-3 reading program that will begin in September 1999.
A continuance to maintain and develop learning conducive to facilities.	Over $375,000 was used to build a new media center at Stoddard Elementary School and to address safety issues.
